Buses

A single fare to the City Centre, among other tickets/passes, can be purchased from the driver; a student single (requires ID from a NUS-affiliated institution) is £1.00, adult singles might be up to £1.80. You do not need to carry exact change, but banknotes may not be accepted and card payment is not possible.

Buses in Sheffield are operated by a variety of companies, most prominently First, Stagecoach, and TM Travel. Route 120 is operated by both First and Stagecoach, depending on the time of day. Some fare types cover multiple carriers, some must be used only on one carrier. Be sure to inform the driver or agent which services you will require.

Rail

Multiple services are available to get to Sheffield by rail. Consult National Rail's website for information: <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>

Taking the tram is the fastest way to get from the rail station to the main conference venues. From the tram platform in the rail station, take the Blue Line (towards Malin Bridge) to West Street. Mappin Street is a short walk west from the stop. A ticket for this journey costs £1.60. For more information on the trams, visit: <http://www.supertram.com/>

Bus route 120 is also an option for getting between the rail station and Endcliffe Village. From the train station: cross Sheaf Street, and follow the covered footpath on your right to Sheffield Interchange; the bus (120 to Fulwood or Ranmoor) stops on Pond Street, opposite the main part of the interchange; alight at Fulwood Road / Shore Lane. From Endcliffe Village: go north out of the village and catch the bus (120 to Halfway) at Fulwood Road / Endcliffe Vale Road; alight at Arundel Gate Interchange; walk through the Sheffield Hallam University City Campus to the train station.

Walking

The walk between Endcliffe Village and the conference venues takes 30–40 minutes. The best route to take is either to:

(i) Go north out of the village, turn northeast (right) onto Fulwood Road (continues as Whitham Road, Western Bank, Brook Hill, and Broad Lane), and turn south (right) onto Mappin Street; or

Taxis

To book a cab with City Taxi call (0)114 239 39 39. You can also book through their mobile app or website: www.citytaxis.com. The fare will be about £5.50; card payment may not be accepted.
